

Service description technical support:

Technical support for installation, starting up and during the event caused by the hirer (eg. as a result of improper handling, technical or other interferences to the equipment by the hirer or third parties, connecting to third party systems or software or due to force majeure, or technical support for third party systems will be charged at actual cost.